

Lena Balci-Ay is study adviser at International Business Administration with the University of Twente, BMS.

Since seven years active at the UT, Lena is currently joining the faculty council, also to ensure a representation of support staff and ensure the motto “BMS in Balance”, representing the entire faculty.

