

Rainer Harms is Associate Professor for Entrepreneurship at the University Twente, HighTech Business & Entrepreneurship cluster, Entrepreneurship and Technology Management group. He is passionate about helping technology entrepreneurs to realize their ambitions. His topics are entrepreneurial learning, technology ventures, entrepreneurial education, and entrepreneurial orientation.

In the Faculty Board he is deeply interested in promoting entrepreneurship & impact, and balance the effects of new external regulation on internationalization and well-being.

