

Yudit Namer is an Assistant Professor of Mental Health and Technology (Department PGT). She holds a doctorate in clinical psychology from Bogaziçi University, Istanbul, Turkey. She worked as a psychotherapist in Istanbul for ten years; her work is based on both relational-psychoanalytic and feminist psychotherapy traditions.

I am interested in prioritizing employee wellbeing - especially structural solutions that focuses on the faculty community's wellbeing as a whole.

