

Koen Vonk

I am wholeheartedly dedicated to enhancing inclusivity and cultivating an entrepreneurial mindset at the University of Twente. I firmly believe that a diverse and inclusive environment is crucial for driving innovation and growth.

Creating a safe and supportive environment is fundamental to my vision. I am dedicated to making the University of Twente a place where everyone can flourish in their respective fields, free from discrimination and prejudice. By fostering a sense of belonging and ensuring the well-being of all community members, we can unlock the full potential of our diverse talents and drive excellence across the University!
